'Heart Broken Child' Turns Out To Be Man

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., June 30. —(CP)—The "heartbroken child" who left the mongrel dog "Kip" at the local dog pound with a pathetic note tucked out to be a 20-year-old factory worker named John Burns.

Dog catcher Thomas J. Rourke said he had discovered it was Burns who wrote the note saying "I am a young boy and my mommie says I can't feed my dog because my daddy is out of work and he can't afford to feed him."

Rourke said Burns admitted writing the note because he decided the five-year-old mongrel was eating too much meat. Burns had only owned the dog a week.

The hundreds of checks, donations and offers to help the "heartbroken child" will be returned to the senders, the dogcatcher said.

"I'm sorry I caused any trouble," Burns was quoted as saying. "I love dogs and I wanted to see if it was a good home."

Lithographers Strike In 23 Ontario Plants

TORONTO, June 30. —(CP)—Five hundred Lithographers in three Ontario cities will picket 23 plants today, 21 of them in Toronto.

Workers in four Toronto plants went on strike yesterday for a new working contract. Employers retaliated by closing the remaining 17 plants in Toronto, one in Hamilton and one in London.

The Amalgamated Lithographers of America (LIA) called the four-plant strike after negotiations for a new contract expired last Jan. 1.

'Ma and Pa Kettle' Sequel To Popular 'The Egg and I'

Homespun comedy delivered by the quaint Kettle family featured in "The Egg and I" sparkles in "Ma and Pa Kettle," now playing at the Rialto Theatre.

"The same down-to-earth couple, Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride handle the Ma and Pa roles, who abetted by 15 progeny, half a dozen of whom appeared as Kettle kids in "The Egg and I."

"The Ma and Pa Kettle" story starts in the same setting in which they were seen in "The Egg and I."

PLENTY OF LAUGHS

The happy-go-lucky Kettles then are lifted from the square of their humble-down shack to push button living in an ultra-electronic house of the future which Pa wears a tobacco slogan coat. Antics of the elderly couple and their offspring in the dazzling new surroundings provide countless laughs sprinkled liberally with suspense and excitement.

Romance is provided by the meeting of Tom Kettle, eldest of the offspring, and Kim Parker, comedy magazine writer assigned to do a story on the Cinderella family. Tom Kettle is played by Richard Long who had the same role in "The Egg and I."

CONVINCING LOVERS

Role of Kim Parker is handled by Meg Randall, dramatic discovery of Universal-International. Both are charmingly convincing as lovers.

Others recruited from the cast of "The Egg" for this sequel include Esther Dale as Birdie Hilde, the trouble-making gossip, and John Moore as Emily who is slightly "ticked."

Tourist Dollar to Bulk Bigger in Deficit Fight

OTTAWA, June 30. —(CP)—The tourist dollar this year is expected to play a bigger part than ever in Canada's fight to stay out of the red.

Government officers say that even visible earnings through the tourist trade likely will offset the recent marked decline in Canada's international commodity trade position.

This position has worsened to the point where bureau of statistics figures show a Canada deficit of $3,000,000 for the period January-April, 1949.

FIRST BREAK IN YEARS

It is the first unfavorable balance for that period in recent years. Favorable trade balances for the months January-April stretched from 1935 to 1948.

However, the commodity trade figures do not take such intangible earnings into account as those obtained from tourist business. Last year this business netted Canada $150,000,000 in hard-dollar currency.

Inside Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD. — (AP) — If Crosby can win an Academy Award, why not Hope?

This proposition is getting more sensible with each new Bob Hope picture. He is now making "Where Men Are Men," a remake of "Ruggles of Red Gap" in which he sports mutton-chop sideburns and a British accent.

The comic glowed with the news that the Gettyburg address scene, which Charles Laughton did memorably in the original film, now will be included in the new version.

"When I suggested a few months ago that I recite the address, they laughed at me," Hope said. "Now they've decided to leave it in."

You know what changed their mind? It was the "Sorrowful Jones" murder, which indicated I might actually be able to act."

MURDER, HE SEES

Hope lamented the fate of a comic who wants to do something fairly dramatic.

It's murder. People look at me and automatically start laughing. I walk down the street and they say, there's Bob Hope—ha ha ha!"

He added that "Sorrowful" helped make a transition for him. "Working with the kid gave me a chance to do something serious without being too obvious," he said.

Bob still hopes to get away for a two-week vacation in Jasper Park, but he said a few days in the local mountains revived his spirits before starting the picture.

"The air is pure outside up there," he said. "One deep breath and the hellish catheys you and puts you to bed."

Richest Dog In The World Dies At Coast

VICTORIA, B.C., June 30. —(CP)—"Tip," probably one of the world's wealthiest and most pampered dogs, is dead.

The 10-year-old male wire-haired terrier, which had been bequeathed $75 a month for its upkeep and care, died Monday night of a heart attack.

In midlife, Mrs. Marguerite E. Spratt, who died two years ago, laid down in her will disposing of $20,000 a year for "Tip."

The will provided that the dog must sleep on her bed, be bathed in an adjoining bathroom and receive other privileges.

A trusted friend, Miss Agnes Cartwright, was left in charge of the dog, but was obliged to give up these duties owing to ill-health. "Tip" had since lived in a kennel.

LONDON, June 30.—(AP)—Ted Schroeder, lion-hearted scrapper from La Crescenta, Calif., stormed from behind to beat South Africa's Eric Sturgess yesterday and gain the final of the Wimbledon singles tennis championship.

Queen Mary and 17,000 other fans saw the only American survivor beat the classy commonwealth hope 3-6, 7-5, 3-7, 6-1, 6-2, by finally getting the jump at the net.

For the title Friday, Schroeder will meet Jaroslav Drobny, bouncing Czech who routed Australian John Bromwich 6-1, 6-3, 6-2.

Covered as silent as the demoralized Bromwich bowed, a contrast to the cheers that greeted the thrills supplied by Schroeder in another of his classic comebacks.

DEVASTATING FINISH
The lightning Yankee finish was so devastating that Sturgess, bedeviled at his failure to keep Schroeder from the net, made a feeble submission in the stretch.

South African champion got only four points after Schroeder broke four times to lead 3-2 in the fifth set.

Experts agreed last night that Schroeder had won a battle. Drobny, although the best in Europe, is given little chance against him on Friday.

The left-handed Czech, a notable in-and-out, gave one of his finer exhibitions yesterday as he and volleyed Bromwich off the court. Bromwich, who was beaten in last year's final by Bob Kenealy, broke back to serve only once in the third set.

Queen Mary Mary, a keen fan at 82, sat straight as she put for more than four hours of tennis. She was seated in the front row of the stands, watching the match.

AL Star Squad Named July 5
CINCINNATI, June 30.—(UPI)—Baseball commissioner A. B. Chandler said yesterday the American League All Star team will be held public on July 5. National league squad for July 12 game at Brooklyn will be announced July 6.

In event of rain, game will be held the following day, on July 13. Chandler also announced he has fined the Aberdeen, South Dakota, team of the Northern league, $500 for violating baseball's high school rule. Chandler said Aberdeen, a Louis Brown farm club, violated the rule by signing Eugene Menard last September. Menard was released in December.

Track and Field Interest On Up-Beat in N. Alberta

Interest in track and field in northern Alberta has reached its highest peak since before World War Two according to registrations with the Amateur Athletic Union and the Women's Amateur Athletic Federation.

And if swelling entry lists at track meets in Raymond and Stettler mean anything interest likewise is on the upswing through most parts of the province.

For instance the Stettler meet, which refused entries from both Edmonton and Calgary, drew nearly 200 competitors. The Raymond affair drew competitors from all over the southern part of the province.

Tomorrow Edmonton holds the Highland Games—biggest open meet of the season. Already there are 100 competitors. The program has 40 events, divided into age classes 12-13, 14-15, 16-17, and 18-19. Officials are working to set record of 21 entries will be at least equalled.

Red Deer will be the site of the next athletic meet in this series, next Wednesday. The meet will have 40 events covering all age divisions. Polar Bear and Edmonton Girls' Athletic clubs are working to take part in the affair.

DRAWING INTEREST
Calgary officials report their planned competition, for seniors only, already is attracting a lot of interest. British Empire Games trials will be held concurrently with the Calgary meeting. These are expected to draw competitors from many parts of the province. It is believed that at least two Albertans will be on the team that represents Canada in New Zealand early next year.

Outlaw Hurler Rejoins White Sox
CHICAGO, June 30.—(AP)—Chicago White Sox yesterday announced return of pitcher Al Carasquel, who jumped to Mexico last season in 1946.

General manager Frank Lane said Carasquel will be in the White Sox in St. Louis Monday. Veteran right-handed pitcher will receive a $600 salary. Lane said the Sox are keeping with trial runs granted all banned major-league players who jumped to Mexico.

White Sox purchased Carasquel from Washington after 1945 season, when he went seven and lost five for Senators.

Can. Dead-Eye Dicks Tuning Up at Bisley
BISLEY CAMP, Surrey, England, June 30.—(CP)—Jocular and enthusiastic, 18 are busy tuning up on Bisley's rambling rifle ranges. They are preparing for the 80th annual empire shoot July 4-15.

Team, under command of Brig. W. W. Reid of Charlottetown, arrived last week on the liner Seneca. Well-to-do in civilian dress and food and cigarettes, they moved into the spacious local two-story headquarters of the Dominion of Canada Rifle association and made for the ranges.

Apple of everybody's eye is the coveted King's prize. Last Canadian winner of the top honor was in 1921. But last year a Canadian, Lt.-Col. J. T. Steele, finished second.

Among the dozens of competitors they have entered, Canadian marksmen have their eye on two other major events, Kangaroo challenge cup and the Dominion challenge cup. Former is for teams of eight and latter for teams of 12.

Solomons Settles Site
LONDON, June 30.—(AP)—Promoter Jack Solomons decided last night to stage the Bruce Woodcock-Lee Savid match for the British version of the world's heavyweight boxing title in London's huge Wembley Stadium Sept. 6.

Stadium holds 75,000 persons, but only 50,000 will be allowed into the arena under a London traffic law.

It was because of this regulation that Solomons said last night he has finally decided to stick with White City because its operators are experienced in handling big-time fights.

No Pitchers' League This
MONTREAL, June 30.—(CP)—Batters in the international league seem determined to prove that it is definitely not a pitchers' league. Jersey City Giants found Montreal pitching to their liking yesterday as they smashed out 20 hits and a 7-3 win over the Royals.

Henry Thompson hit two home runs for the Giants and Monte Irvin belted one.

Cedar-dwelling Newark Bears outwitted the crippled Toronto Maple Leafs 11-6 in Toronto.

Dodgers, Cards Picked As Braves' Opposition

NEW YORK, June 30.—(UPI)—Manager Billy Southworth yesterday picked Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals as the clubs his Boston Braves will have to beat out to retain the National League pennant but cautioned that "any club in the league can upset the apple cart."

"The others are strengthened," he said. "I don't think we can afford to be complacent."

Billy the Kid pointed to the record as proof that no club has been able to pile up a commanding lead, such as the Yankees have held in the rival American League.

"It's wide open," he insisted. "A winning streak by any club could put them on top."

As for his injury-riddled Braves, Southworth blamed the club's current dilemma on "lack of pitching."

"That's most of our trouble," he asserted, "pitching isn't too hot. If we get better pitching, we'll win."

Biggest blow to the Braves' hopes, however, was the injury of both its first baseman, Earl Torgeson and Ray Sanders. Their replacement, Elbie Fletcher, was a triple in the fourth frame.

Acadia Divn. Teachers Get New Schedule

ESTHER, June 30.—The ATA district representative, Mr. W. H. Macdonald, and Acadia teachers' local representatives, C. A. Macdonald and Harold J. Hall met with the Acadia School Board in Owen recently and successfully negotiated a salary schedule which is one of the best in the province. The basic minimum for teachers on the one year's training will be $1,600 with increments of $100 for each year's experience up to $2,500. Teacher representatives Mr. C. A. Macdonald and Mr. Hall stated: "The schedule negotiated is one of the best in the province. It is hoped that this schedule will induce many of the teachers to remain in this inspectorate."

Now Chuck Wagon Comes by Trailer

By Ken Liddell
PONOKA, June 30.—When you head west, partner, the old chuck wagon and the camp fire they left a happy heritage, but the chuck wagon seems to have hit a dead end. They don't ride over to it to eat any more. They take it with them.

And when Ponoka's four-day stampede opened yesterday, Al Shannon had his outfit here from Armstrong, B.C., after a 600 mile trip with six horses, a chuck wagon and a couple of other fellows in a truck.

In the lineups on other trailers, ranging from New Mexico, Ponoka people saw justification for their pride in Canada's second largest stampede.

PONOKA PRODUCTS

They are proud, too, of the fact that 300 head of bucking stock, horses, steers, calves and Brahms, all the cattle and half the horses came from farms of Harry and Cliff Vold, right in their back yard.

And it was a surprise to visiting cowboys that when they ride in some of the top shows around the line they are also outside Ponoka products.

The Brahms bulls came from Black Diamond.

It is 15 years since the annual fair journey and these were expanded into a stampede and growth has been right smart. This year, riding up slick caused by an agricultural fair was added and continued for four days.

Heart in England, Canada His Home

By Ken Liddell
Provincial News Editor
LACOMBE, June 30.—Alfred Thomas Inskip had lived in this country since a boy, but his heart was always in Plymouth, England.

When he first came he ranched at Bow River, then for five years at Buffalo Lake until he moved to Lacombe in 1926 to build the old Victoria Hotel.

Then he built the Lacombe Hotel and operated it with his sister, Miss Alice Inskip, who followed him to Canada, until he retired in 1945.

Brother and sister had been together in Alberta for nearly 35 years and almost every year they took a trip back to Plymouth town.

Every time of late they said it would be the last. They said they would retire and stay there. And every time the people of Lacombe gave a farewell party, but the Inskips always came back.

Longest they ever stayed was four years. They will be leaving again after the funeral in Lacombe Anglican Church at 2 o'clock this morning. They were getting along coming down from Calgary, and Rev. E. H. Lee, D.D., of the Lacombe United Church will assist him.

This year the Inskips have been saying that this was definitely the last trip. They were getting along in years and only reason they came back last time was to settle up their affairs.

They will leave Lacombe on Sunday and sail from Montreal on June 30 for Plymouth, where some of the family were visiting people some associated with the noted Currier line.

They will sail together but he will be travelling alone. While he was clearing up his property, Mr. Inskip who was 76 years of age, died June 29 at his home. His sister is taking him home to be buried.

IF IT'S LATE JUST SAY SO

During the summer holiday months Bulletin carrier organization is disrupted somewhat by members on vacation, with temporary carriers to replace.

The Edmonton Bulletin arrives at all times to give the best in service and any comments to improve service will be welcomed by dropping a line to the circulation department.

Agriulturist For Camrose

CAMROSE, June 30.—W. A. Molter, who has been the district agriculturist at Camrose for the past three years, has been joined by Allan Beatty who will be the assistant agriculturist here.

Mr. Beatty is a new graduate at the University of Alberta with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture. He originally lived at Swainsville, Alberta, where his parents farm. He enrolled in the RCAF in 1941 as a radar technician and was discharged in Calgary in 1945.

Rainfall Affects Graduation Date

VETERAN, June 30.—Entire day's rain from Montreal on Sunday for Plymouth, where some of the family were visiting people some associated with the noted Currier line.

They will sail together but he will be travelling alone. While he was clearing up his property, Mr. Inskip who was 76 years of age, died June 29 at his home. His sister is taking him home to be buried.

Prominent Wetaskiwin Business Man Dies

WETASKIWIN, June 30.—Join Patrick Gleason, business man in Wetaskiwin for the past 14 years, died suddenly in the hospital here Monday morning, aged 63 years.

He was born in Montreal July 1901 and moved to Calgary with his parents in 1903 and remained there until he came to Wetaskiwin in 1924 where he commenced a garage business.

He was very active in sport circles and was a member of the Calgary Junior Canadians when they won the McMillan Cup in 1920. He also played golf for the Wetaskiwin Golfers for a number of years.

Mr. Gleason was a member of Sacred Heart Church and of the Separate School Board. He was a member of the Local Order of Moose 1859 and the Legion of Moose No. 78. He is survived by his wife and four children, Michael, Jack, Mary Lou and Patricia. Also surviving are his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. James Gleason of Calgary, three brothers and three sisters, Edmund of Field, B.C., Frank of Calgary, Donald of Wetaskiwin, Miss Gertrude of Calgary, Mrs. J. Hill, Calgary and Mrs. Harold MacArthur of Calgary.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Father J. R. MacDonald, was held at the Sacred Heart Church this morning, with interment in the Roman Catholic cemetery, Wetaskiwin.

IN OUR

Now Chuck Wagon Comes by Trailer

By Ken Liddell
PONOKA, June 30.—When you head west, partner, the old chuck wagon and the camp fire they left a happy heritage, but the chuck wagon seems to have hit a dead end. They don't ride over to it to eat any more. They take it with them.

And when Ponoka's four-day stampede opened yesterday, Al Shannon had his outfit here from Armstrong, B.C., after a 600 mile trip with six horses, a chuck wagon and a couple of other fellows in a truck.

In the lineups on other trailers, ranging from New Mexico, Ponoka people saw justification for their pride in Canada's second largest stampede.

PONOKA PRODUCTS

They are proud, too, of the fact that 300 head of bucking stock, horses, steers, calves and Brahms, all the cattle and half the horses came from farms of Harry and Cliff Vold, right in their back yard.

And it was a surprise to visiting cowboys that when they ride in some of the top shows around the line they are also outside Ponoka products.

The Brahms bulls came from Black Diamond.

It is 15 years since the annual fair journey and these were expanded into a stampede and growth has been right smart. This year, riding up slick caused by an agricultural fair was added and continued for four days.

Scout Service Award Given Camrose Man

CAMROSE, June 30.—Rees C. Hugh, who is the manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Camrose, has been awarded the Boy Scout "Silver Arrow" for distinguished service to Scouting.

Mr. Hugh became active as a leader in the Boy Scout movement in 1930, when he formed the 1st Standard Troop and consequently other groups were formed in the surrounding communities at St. Albert. In 1932 he was appointed District Scout Commissioner and continued to act as Scoutmaster for his Troop at Standard.

In 1943 he was transferred to Calgary and at that time he was appointed assistant provincial commissioner, which office he held at present. In 1945 he moved to Camrose and he was instrumental in re-organizing the Scout Troop at Camrose.

Camp Meeting Near Veteran

VETERAN, June 30.—Congregation of the Full Gospel Mission of the Pentecostal Church has been quite busy making all arrangements for the week-end camp meeting which is being held from July 3 to 7.

The tabernacle is located six miles south of town on the Thuleen farm on the Lacombe road.

Among the speakers are G. S. McLean, of the Full Gospel Institute, of Eaton, Sask.; Evangelist F. K. Kook, of Calgary; Rev. Phil and Mrs. Davies, missionaries returned from Africa, and others. Miss Phyllis Burr of West Westminster, B.C. will be camp pianist, and also supervisor of the children's meetings.

Three sessions will be held daily.

Wharf and Breakwater Planned for Cold Lake

COLD LAKE, June 30.—Work on a new $60,000 wharf and breakwater at Cold Lake is expected to commence soon, stated J. M. Dechene, M.P., at a recent meeting here. Mr. Dechene is the veteran member for Athabasca and was re-elected Monday.

Plans call for the extension of the existing wharf 205 feet further out to deep water. The construction will then continue at right angles and in an easterly direction for 270 feet, thus making an "L" shaped wharf proper for the loading and unloading of the water right along the shore.

The new wharf will be 30 feet wide at the L and the outside (facing) will be built in a manner which will protect the wharf from tremendous pressures and shocks caused by shifting winds during the spring break-up. At times moving ice flows many square miles in the direction of the wharf right on the shore.

Last year $20,000 was voted by the Federal government for a new Cold Lake breakwater and a site had been chosen for the construction of the wharf. Plans called for the construction within a few days of the Women's Missionary Society 20th-25th hospital and close by the institution's water right along the shore.

SEVEN DAYS FOR DRIVING WHILE DRUNK

RED DEER, June 30.—Dr. Robert Hoag, M.D., was sentenced to seven days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for six months when he appeared before Magistrate James Smith in city police court Monday on charge of driving while drunk. H.M.P. who generated drunk court offences occurred on No. 11 highway near Sylvan Lake on June 11.

Camrose Week For Lutherans Starts July 3

CAMROSE, June 30.—Annus "Camrose Week" will be held in the Camrose Lutheran Church on Sunday night, July 3, with three meetings daily.

Meetings will also be held at the Camrose Lutheran Bible Institute at 11:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on both Sunday and Monday.

Services at the conference will be held by the Pastor, O. G. Gieseler, from Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Evangelist J. V. Erickson from Kenosha, Wis.

Renovate Hall

VETERAN, June 30.—Repairing and painting of Memorial Hall, progressing under supervision of Maynard Watson and John McDonald.

Several members of Veteran Main Lodge attended the annual special service at Coronation Sunday evening.

Youthful Crime

WINNIPEG—(CP)—A juvenile crime wave has struck Winnipeg. In the past week city police arrested more than 33 youngsters in connection with a series of break-ins and thefts. The boys, all from one area, were from 12 to 16 years old.

Highland Games Draw Large Entry

At Least 140 to Take Part As Scots Have Day at S.S.

It'll be a 'braw' day at the South Side Athletic grounds tomorrow when the Edmonton Highland Games association holds their 23rd annual gathering.

A large entry list, including a record number of participants in the athletic events, will compete and festivities are scheduled to get under way at 9 a.m. although the official opening will not be held until 3 p.m.

ABOUT 85 ATHLETES
Of the more than 140 entries on hand thus far, 75 will compete in the piping and dancing events. There are about 60 entries on hand in the athletic section and it is hoped there will be several competitors on hand from Calgary.

A varied program has been arranged for the Dominion Day celebrations featuring the talented dancers in colorful hand costumes, as well as piping artists competing for honors.

Track and field events are expected to draw the most spectators and one of the features will be a 'treeline' pursuit bicycle race.

Of the 75 entries received for competition in the piping and dancing events, 25 came from out of town. Calgary leads the list with 13 participants. The Deer, next with eight; Saskatoon and Kimberley, B.C., each have three; there are two from both Brandon and Innisfail. Clonaid will have a single representative.

SUTHERLAND BACK
Not counting those expected from Calgary there are at least eight entries in the athletic events headed by heavyweight George Sutherland of DeWinton, Yukon, and Donovan, Ivor, Bant Gunn and Sunnybrook, once, are listed as far home towns of the visitors.

The Edmonton Police Athletic top-of-war team also is entered and constables Norm Hooper and 'Doc' McNaughton also will compete in the athletic events.

Highlighting distaff entries is Christine Campbell, Betty Busby, Joy Howell, Sharon Smith, Dorcas Wells, Howard Brown, all Red Deer.

Donald Adam, Robert Adam and George Adam, Kimberley, B.C., are the Lammer, Nanny Markers and Jean Christie, Saskatoon, Fredrick Johnson and Freda Nielsen, Red Deer, Jean Perry and Barbara Brown, Clonaid.

The following all are from Edmonton: Evelyn Gervais, Joan Gervais, Donald MacIntosh, MacIntosh, George Tupper, John Tupper, John Tupper, Sheila Curtis, Annamay Brown, Betty Gray Brown, Maureen Christie, Carol MacArthur, Donald H. Scott, Thomas Hargreaves, Hargreaves, Grace Higgins, Marilyn Hargreaves.

Track and Field Events Draw 32 Male Entries

Thirty-two talented male track and field athletes and bicycle racers will compete for honors at the Edmonton Highland Games Association's 23rd annual gathering to be held at the South Side Athletic ground tomorrow.

Of this group at least six will be from out-of-town. There is a possibility that several Canadians, not yet definite starts, will show up. George Sulistad of Dawson, outstanding heavyweight on the prairies for many years, will be on hand along with Andrew Free, Sunnyside; Doug McNeill, Gun, Ted Stafford, Banff and George Munn and David Mitchell of Vulcan.

Pat Walker, defending champion where track events are concerned will be back for another fling at the games tomorrow.

Two of the city police constables taking part, Ron Hooper and Doc McHugh, are looked upon as the main threats in the field events. Hooper is the defending title in that section. As well, the police top-of-the-team, perennial heavyweight champion, will be back.

One feature of the day's events will be the three-mile and-out bicycle race, scheduled to start at 4:15 p.m. There will be three other

"A Grand Place to Stay"

By J. D.

Elections aren't what they used to be. As a matter of fact if I hadn't been handed a cigar by Danny Lym and hadn't worked until 4 a.m. Tuesday I wouldn't even remember Monday. Things were that quiet.

Thirty or 40 years ago things were different. Elections were taken pretty seriously around our town.

If you doubt this, ask A. R. Lawrence, A. R. is like A. R. Tenney's brook. He seems to go on forever and anything that's happened in Edmonton since 1908 that A. R. has forgotten isn't worth remembering.

He dropped up to the office last night and we started talking about the election. A. R. puffed on his ever-present cigar and sighed.

"No sire, Elections aren't what they used to be," he said. "People would no more think of missing a good election campaign meeting 30 years ago than a present-day hockey fan would think of staying away from the arena for a playoff final, he said. "A. R. was right in the middle of the hottest, acropiet election campaign meeting ever held in Edmonton."

BACK IN 1911
It was a civic campaign back about 1911 that produced the best meeting 30-year-old A. R. Lawrence will never forget. Mr. Lawrence was running the old Bijou theatre on 101 street where the Bijou now stands. A - day-long battle was waged in city council for months about the appointment of two new city commissioners. It was during the term of the late ex-Mayor Armstrong.

The mayor addressed a public meeting to discuss the issues. It was to have been held in the old St. Nicholas church on 101 street. But for some amazing reason the city building inspection condemned the hall that very afternoon. It was fortunate that he did as things turned out.

So A. R. Bijou theatre was rented. It accommodated 800 at a light source.

Meeting was at 8:00 p.m. At seven o'clock there was a crowd in front of the Bijou com-

ANOTHER FINE old Edmonton landmark will become a victim of Edmonton's post-war expansion soon. It is this still-handsome, sturdy brick mansion at 10004 98 avenue. Two-story, eight-roomed dwelling is 57 years old and was once Edmonton's finest home. It must be torn down to make room for new provincial building to be erected adjacent to Administration Building. House was built in 1902 by late William Short, K.C., long a prominent barrister and three times mayor of Edmonton. —Photo by Blaud.

Hearing Continues in Suit By City Man for $100,000

Frank W. Schmuck was on the witness stand for more than two hours yesterday afternoon as he testified in the $100,000 suit he has brought against directors and former directors of Alberta Oxygen and Acetylene Co. Ltd.

Defendants in the suit are Francis G. Winaper, R. Windsor Hamilton, H. N. Miller, Kenneth L. Lawrence, H. N. Stewart and K. S. C. Mitchell of Edmonton, L. A. Cavasani of Calgary and Allen Bowman of Saskatoon.

In denying the statements of claim, the defendants have issued a counterclaim for $10,000. Question of whether or not an agreement between Bowman Bros. of Saskatoon and Alberta Oxygen and Acetylene Co. Ltd., of Edmonton was legally cancelled, occupied afternoon session.

ENTER EXHIBIT
Signed agreement was submitted as exhibit by Schmuck's counsel, Neil D. Maclean, K.C. Agreement stipulated Bowman Bros. of Saskatoon would buy not less than 375,000 cubic feet of oxygen and 100,000 cubic feet of acetylene per month from the oxygen company headed by Schmuck.

Schmuck, who has named Allen Bowman among others in the $100,000 suit, testified the Saskatoon firm bought and paid for one carload of acetylene. He swore Bowman Bros. failed to fulfill the terms of the agreement and had built a plant in Saskatoon competing with the Alberta Oxygen and Acetylene Co. Ltd. But the agreement question was only a preliminary problem to Schmuck's real case. His counsel, Mr. Maclean, will attempt to prove that Schmuck

City Names Head For Welfare Dept.

Frank Drayton to Retire As City Broadens Scope

Toronto child welfare expert, E. S. Bishop, was appointed yesterday by city council to head Edmonton's child welfare department on retirement of Frank Drayton.

Bishop will assume his new duties immediately, but will not take over the department until January 1, 1950 when Mr. Drayton retires on pension.

Graduate of Toronto School of Social Work, Mr. Bishop was favourably recommended by Canadian Council of Social Agencies, and other social and welfare organizations.

He also served for several years as personnel councillor to MCNVR and the Big Brothers association. Chairman of city council's child welfare committee, George E. Givens, recommending the Bishop

THANK YOU

I wish to extend at this time a personal note of thanks to the many friends who contributed to my success in the recent federal election. To the many people who aided me in my campaign, and stood behind me with encouragement and support I owe my deepest gratitude. To the many voters who supported me at the polls I say "Thank You." And I hope that my action as your representative at Ottawa will demonstrate in a more tangible way the respect I have for your trust in me!

No Feminine Touch In House of Commons

Liberal Onslaught Sweeps Women
From Listings of Parliament Members

For the first time since Agnes MacPhail started political diatribes by winning Grey-Bruce in 1921, the house of commons will lack the feminine touch.

The single representative of heres in the last house Mrs. Gladys Strum, CCF member for Qu'Appelle, went down before the Liberal onslaught in Monday's election and not one of 14 other women as feminists could make the grade.

Several made a fight of it. Mrs. Strum, who lost to Liberal Austin Dowse, stayed close to the winner in early returns and finished 1,000 votes behind.

CLOSE CALL

Even closer was Mrs. Dorothy Weaver, another CCF standard bearer, in the British Columbia constituency of Durney-Richmond. One of the last seats to be decided, it finally went to Liberal T. Goode by a scant 200 votes.

Ruth Bedford, a liberal candidate, fought hard to unseat the veteran T. J. Church in Toronto-Broadview. The Progressive Conservative MP held his seat by a 1,000-vote margin.

Others didn't come as close. Marjorie Macphail, a cousin of Phil Macphail, Canadian-born baseball pitcher with the major league Philadelphia Athletics, lost her deposit in Simcoe East. Ontario's rail on the Union of Elections ticket. Mrs. Beattie Keating, CCF, fared no better in St. Catharines. Mrs. Grant, a Conservative, lost her seat in St. Catharines.

STILL HAVE VOICE

But women still will have a voice on parliament hill. Unaffected by their sisters' setbacks, they will be in the accustomed seats in the senate for the new session. They are Senator C. J. Wilson, a Liberal and Mrs. J. A. Wilson, a Conservative, both from Ontario.

WMA Hears Talk On Sunday Laws

Sunday Observance was the subject of the devotional given at a meeting of the Women's Missionary Association of Central United Church.

Mrs. J. Rignell led the discussion assisted by Mrs. J. Hughes and Mrs. M. C. Adams. There were 71 calls were made on strangers and acquaintances and 100 prayers were made.

Supplies of clothing and literature were sent to various centres. The collection having been received from the Associate Helpers.

Mrs. R. L. McKee, president, was accompanied by Mrs. B. Ruessell. Mrs. Beck West of the Gorge was welcomed by Mrs. A. E. Cook. She took members on an imaginary tour of the Gorge.

The WMA meeting will be on September 10. The WMA meeting will be on September 10.

Canuck Composer's String Quartet On CBC Prog. Tonight

VANCOUVER, June 30.—(CP)—The first radio broadcast of a string quartet, the recent work of noted Vancouver composer, Jean Coulthart, will be played in the CBC Wednesday Night program.

It was performed by the Solway String Quartet, which gave the work its world premiere last March in Toronto.

This first performance of her work was followed by the award of the Alfred J. Clement Memorial Prize in London, England, in recognition of her work.

The quartet will be played in London this fall. Mrs. Adams first heard her work played in the Toronto home of Mr. Solway as she passed through on her way to Europe. A CBC program director at the Macdonald hotel for a few days.

Silvered Leaves Add Grace to Centrepiece

By Bea Thrifty

Graceful array of silvered leaves in a pale turquoise bowl served as a centrepiece at a party yesterday.

And of course many of the most faked friends just now and where they acquired the pretty things.

She told me the whole fascinating story.

Seems that a craft florist had found a lovely leaves silvered for a window decoration.

Many people were impressed and asked some florist if they could have leaves silvered.

Answer to the question, is $180 for a suitable bunch. But as I could have this lovely for my mantelpiece I've rushed out and bought a pretty bowl of Canadian pottery. But I'm being novel to the extent that my bowl is flame-colored. My leaves will be here soon.

Incidentally, the bowl is a love for just $2.25.

Oh and the very same hostess had another lovely gem. This time in the form of a fine vase there was simply no brighter name for them than "Bridge Dainties."

Anyway here is the know-how: Cut 20 glass vases, each very fine. Add 1½ cups daisies, chopped fine, one can coconut, three dollars are 12 and 12 inches. Cut in pieces, 15, can condensed milk.

Mix and roll in small balls, leave overnight and roll in fine sand, water or coconut crumbs. This is indeed a d'arling goodie.

I can hardly wait for a big bunch of tasty green beans, as fresh from the garden vines. As a matter of fact we should be able to buy the fresh beans this Friday. They'll be selling at around 10¢ per pound. The whole sale distributors are still vague about the price and quality.

Really lovely cocktail mats are selling at the per dozen in some of the stores. . . and they're perfect leaves.

Plastic glass novelties are swinging into higher and higher heights these brain-wave daisies. There is a paper daisy bordered in green or red or blue plain, with four napkins to match.

This goes to the buyer for $2c.

Cocktail services with pay little in the fact that . . . in paper cups, the daisy is a perfect for $7c. This paper is almost like linen.

Anyway, hurry while they have it. Buy British Columbia candelabra with three wicks.

Hurry . . . hurry.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Fortunate Parent Learns From Children

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

It is the fortunate parent who can make profit out of situations which many a parent considers to be work alone.

Instead of being bored by questions she is called upon to answer, or expostulations she takes with her children, she is fascinated by the information she acquires.

Mrs. F. G. writes, "I am wondering, Mrs. Eldred, how have you learned mothers of the advantages of rising with the current? I had no brothers and at the age of forty I find myself with two boys who are leading me an exciting life."

"I got my first feeling of relaxation with them when I took them to the zoo in the city. One of the boys pointed out to me the sparrows feeding in the elephant's cage."

"I know that it is right to expose our children to the best influences, but I have little patience with the mother who says, behind her hand, 'I am just doing this for so and so's sake.' The fact is, if we are smart, what we do is for our own sake, too."

"Every activity I have shared with the boys has brought me information which is a trip to the woods, or a test in the fourth-grade, social studies."

"It is important to me to learn with my children. The day I learned to read, I learned to learn with my children. We have to acknowledge our shortcomings and compensate for them. Incidentally, I am a college graduate, and my four-grade son is a college graduate."

"This is a fine policy and when mothers have to help their children with their homework, it should not be done with a bored air as if the whole thing were so uninteresting to them."

One mother I know admitted she has become an expert in social studies and physics after reading, interpreting and listening to her children's homework. She felt enormously repaid for her efforts and the subjects came alive to her again.

The interest a parent displays in the day by day work of her children enhances their own interest. How can a child believe that what he is doing is important, if adults ignore it?

As for expostulations, there is more than information to be gleaned from them: there are relationships to be cultivated and polished by sending a mother and her son, 'Time wasted.' By no means, this is of the very essence of parent-ship.

BRIDGE

Second Hand Low Give Rule Thought

By William E. McKenney

If you were to read all of the bridge books printed, learn all of the conventions and the different plays, you still would have one more lesson to learn. And that is—there is no rule in bridge that should not be broken at times.

One of the beginner's first lessons is to play second hand low; but too often players who are capable of playing a good game just go on mechanically following such rules as second hand low.

Why not give and a little thought to the rule? You hold the East cards and open the five of hearts. Your partner puts on the king and dealer wins the trick with the ace. Now he leads the deuce of diamonds. What do you play? The rule says second hand low, but before playing, stop and think.

You know that dealer does not have the queen of diamonds, or he would have led it. Therefore, he is going to take the finesse, and your partner's card will be the queen. But then when dealer gets in again, he will be able to finesse you out of both the king and ten of diamonds.

No Feminine Touch In House of Commons

Liberal Onslaught Sweeps Women
From Listings of Parliament Members

For the first time since Agnes MacPhail started political diatribes by winning Grey-Bruce in 1921, the house of commons will lack the feminine touch.

The single representative of her sex in the last house, Mrs. Gladys Gurney, CCF member for Qu'Appelle, went down before the liberal onslaught in Monday's election and not one of 14 other women aspirants could make the grade.

Several made a fight of it. Mrs. Strum, who lost in Liberal Austin Dewar, stayed close to the winner in early returns and finished 1,300 votes behind.

CLOSE CALL
Even closer was Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, another CCF standard-bearer, in the British Columbia constituency of Burnaby-Richmond. One of the last seats to be decided, it finally went to Liberal T. Goode by a scant 327 votes.

Ruth Badford, a liberal candidate, fought hard to unseat the veteran T. L. Church in Toronto Broadview. The Progressive Conservative MP, who lost by a 1,200-vote margin.

Others didn't come as close. Macphail, Marchbanks, a cousin of Phil Marchbanks, Canadian-born and now in the U.S. Army, lost in the Philadelphia Athletics last year in his home town of Simcoe, Ont. where she ran on the Union of Electors ticket. Mrs. Beattie Keating, CCF, fared no better in Marquette, Man., against Union Minister Garson.

STILL HAVE VOICE
But women will still have a voice on parliament hill. Unaffected by their sisters' setbacks, two will be in their accustomed seats in the senate for the new session. They are Senator John Wilson, a liberal and Iva Fallick, a Conservative, both from Ontario.

WMA Hears Talk On Sunday Laws
Sunday observance was the subject of the devotional given at a meeting of the Women's Missionary Association of Central United Church.

Mrs. J. Bignell led the discussion, assisted by Mrs. J. Higgins and Mrs. M. Campbell.

It was reported 71 calls were made on strangers and about a dozen hospital calls were made. Supplies of clothing and literature were sent to various centers.

Summer Fruit Pairs Well With Ice Cream

Family's Favorite Summer Dessert
Is Ice Cream, Plain or Fancied Up

By Jane Scott

Whether you make it or buy it, ice cream is still summer's best dessert.

Your family will love it spooned into tempting heaps or molded into elegant shapes.

Perfect complements for nourishing ice cream treats are smooth, rich sauces, or fresh summer-ripe fruit.

ICE CREAM TOWER

1 1/2 qt. vanilla ice cream, 1 qt. raspberry sauce, 1/2 cup fresh fruit, garden flowers.

You need 4 molds (glass, tin or paraffin) 2' deep, ranging in diameter from 2" to 8". As for the ice cream and sherry, you can make or buy them.

Pack the sherbet into the smallest mold, ice cream into the next size, so on. Place molds in the freezing compartment of your refrigerator or freezer to freeze firm. Lacking these, place in pails and surround with a mixture of pure cracked ice and 1 part coarse salt. Cover tightly so salt won't seep. Let stand a minimum of 4 hours.

To unmold, dip the bottom of each mold in hot water to loosen it, then run a sharp knife around edge. Arrange ice cream and sherry alternately, starting with ice cream.

CHOCOLATE MARSHMALLOW ICE CREAM

One cup milk, 2 tablespoons vanilla extract, 25 marshmallows, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 cup whipping cream, 1/2 cup chocolate, 1 cup heavy cream. Put everything except the heavy cream in a saucepan and place over boiling water until chocolate is melted. Stir in the milk and cream. While, take off stove and chill. Whip heavy cream and add to chocolate mixture. Pour into molds and freeze. Freeze two hours.

FABULOUS ICE CREAM SAUCES

Butter Chocolate Sauce: Melt 4 squares unsweetened chocolate with 2 tablespoons butter or margarine over hot water. When molten, add 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 cup milk, 1/4 cup heavy cream. Stir constantly, 10 minutes. Serve over vanilla ice cream with shaved almonds.

Buttercream Sauce: Put 1 1/2 cups sugar, 1/2 cup butter, 1/4 cup heavy cream, 1/4 cup milk, 1/4 cup vanilla extract in a saucepan. Place over low heat and stir constantly until sugar has dissolved. Cook until thermometer reaches 248° or pull a few drops of sauce in cold water forms a soft ball. Cool. Add 1/4 cup almonds, toasted, shredded. Freeze. Freeze two hours.

RICH VANILLA ICE CREAM

Three cups light cream, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 8 egg yolks, 1/2 cup vanilla extract, 1 qt. heavy cream. Place light cream in a saucepan and heat over boiling water. Scalding means heating to the point where a thin skin forms on top of the cream. Then stir in the sugar and salt. Beat the egg yolks slightly. Beat in the full of scalded cream. Add egg yolks to cream and continue cooking, stirring constantly, until custard coats the spoon. Pour into a bowl and cool.

When cool add vanilla extract and the heavy cream. Put the custard into the freezer can, add the ice cream mixture and cover tightly. Place can in tub and seal just the crank. Then pack a mixture of 1 part crushed ice with 1 part salt around can and right up to the top. Turn crank slowly for first five minutes. Then turn as fast as you can until ice cream is creamy and firm.

Take out the can, cover again and drain off the water. Pack well a second time with salt and ice and cover with a heavy bag of salt. Let stand 3 to 4 hours. Makes 2 quarts and plenty for 4.

With Fresh Fruit: Follow the recipe above exactly, mixing in 2 cups crushed, slightly sweetened fresh peaches, strawberries or raspberries just before you pack it in cream with salt and ice mixture.

RASPBERRY ICE CREAM

Two eggs; 1/3 cup light cream; 1/2 cup milk; 1/2 cup sugar; 1/2 cup whipping cream; 1/2 cup raspberries; 1/2 cup vanilla extract; 1/2 cup heavy cream. Beat eggs; add cream; sugar; beating constantly. Add cream; sugar; beating constantly. Add cream; sugar; beating constantly.

Beat eggs; add cream; sugar; beating constantly. Add cream; sugar; beating constantly. Add cream; sugar; beating constantly. Add cream; sugar; beating constantly. Add cream; sugar; beating constantly.

LEMON ICE CREAM

Two eggs; 1/3 cup sugar; 1/2 cup milk; 1/2 cup whipping cream; 1/2 cup lemon juice; 1/2 cup vanilla extract; 1/2 cup heavy cream. Beat eggs; add cream; sugar; beating constantly. Add cream; sugar; beating constantly.

FRUIT COCKTAIL MAINSTAY

Of Summer-Time Desserts

You will never be without a dessert if you keep plenty of fruit cocktail on your shelves.

Variety of refreshing desserts for summer days can be made from either the fresh or canned variety.

Chill fruit cocktail in can in refrigerator for at least an hour. Before filling the sherbet glasses, squeeze a lemon and dip the rim in the juice and then in sugar. This makes a pretty fraying.

Put one serving of fruit cocktail in each glass. Then add 1 or 2 tablespoons of Chablis for any other dry white wine. The amount of wine depends, naturally, on how much wine flavor you want.

GINGERALE SALAD

Two envelopes unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 2 1/2 cups boiling juice, 1/2 cup lemon juice, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 cup gingerale, 1/2 cup orange juice, 1/2 cup broken walnuts, 1/2 cup dried celery.

Soak gelatin in cold water. Drain juice from cocktail and bring to a boil. Pour into the gelatin. Then mix in fruit, nuts and celery.

Place in a mold that has been rinsed in cold water and chill until firm. Serve with a tart salad dressing.

FRUIT COCKTAIL COBBLER

Three cups bluetrit mix, 4 tablespoons sugar, 4 tablespoons shortening, 1 egg; 1/2 cup milk (about); 1/2 cup vanilla extract; 1/2 cup fruit cocktail; 1/2 cup orange juice; 1/2 cup broken walnuts, 1/2 cup dried celery.

Start your oven at 425° or hot. Mix up bluetrit mix and sugar. Work in shortening until dough is stiff. Beat up egg slightly. Pour this into the bluetrit mix and mix very well.

Roll into a rectangle approximately 17" x 12". On floured board, steam will escape in center so drain fruit cocktail and add orange juice to fruit. Mix cornstarch with juice and orange juice. Pour into fruit cocktail pan. Mix dough on top. Bake 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot or cold.

FROZEN FRY LOAF

One-half 8" loaf cake (pound or more); 1 cup shredded coconut; 1 No. 24 can about 2 1/2 cups fruit cocktail; 1 teaspoon ground orange sugar; 1/2 cup orange juice; 1 pt. vanilla ice cream; 1 tablespoon cornstarch.

Roll loaf pan with waxed paper allowing paper to stick up beyond sides of pan about 2 inches. Cut loaf cake in half lengthwise.

Fall Lingerie

Has 44 Colors

NEW YORK, June 30.—(CP)—Fall lingerie has a bright outlook. Autumn models will appear in 44 different shades, designed to complement the important basic colors of the season's fashions.

Recognizing the trend toward a more conservative range of tones in undergarments, one textile firm is introducing a Columbia Forty-Four. Colors run through blues, pinks, yellows, mauves and greens, from the lightest to the darkest shades.

Also included are Paris-inspired fashion colors such as apricot, grey, raspberry and brilliant blues of flame-blue and flamingo. One group of colors comprises tints from light champagne to golden tan, intended to blend with the brown and color that has brought the autumn picture.

Urges More Study

Of Sex Education

SCARBOROUGH, Yorkshire, England, June 30.—(CP)—Most medical students know more about making pink pills than they do about sex, says Dr. Bernard Sandler.

At a Marriage Guidance Council conference he said universities should train students in sex psychology, marriage guidance and birth control.

"It is not fair to patients that so many young doctors are in such a quandary when faced with premarital queries," he said.

Tinkling Ice In Rich Coffee Is Fine Beverage

Fresh, strong, clear, and tinkling—that the ideal iced coffee. To sweeten it, the coffee is a syrup of sugar and water boiled together and chilled.

To be at its best, iced coffee must start with good hot coffee. There are two ways to prepare it.

Pre-Cooled Method

1. Make coffee routine strength—one standard coffee measure (two level measuring tablespoons) of coffee to each three-quarters of a measuring cup of freshly drawn water.

2. Cool in a non-metallic container for not more than three hours, or, if the container is lightly oiled, chill in refrigerator.

3. Serve in tall glasses with iced sugar and sugar syrup and cream to taste.

Quick Method

1. Make coffee double strength by using half amount of water to the usual amount of coffee.

2. Pour hot over-ice cubes in tall glasses. Stir with cream and sugar or sugar syrup to taste.

Mocha Iced Coffee

Combine fresh coffee with double strength coffee in an equal amount of cooled cocoa or chocolate syrup.

Spiced Ice Coffee

Four three cups of hot, double-strength coffee over 2 inch cubes of cinnamon, 4 whole cloves and 4 allspice berries. Let stand one hour; strain. Pour over ice in four tall glasses. Serve with cream and sugar.

Mint Iced Coffee

Pour fresh regular strength coffee over ice in glass. Top the chilled, filled glass with whipped cream, in which a drop or two of mint has been added.

Chilled Soups Hit the Spot On Summer Day Menus

Cold soups will hit the spot on a hot summer day, and are very nourishing besides.

Some you can make yourself, and some you can get out of cans.

For instance you must start from scratch for the potato-cucumber and apple-celery soups, but the others can be made ready at the twist of a can opener.

POTATO-CUCUMBER SOUP

Three medium potatoes, peeled and diced, 1 medium cucumber, peeled and sliced, 2 stalks celery, diced, 1 small onion, diced, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon pepper, 2 chicken bouillon cubes, 1/2 cup heavy cream, 1 slice corn bread, crumbled.

Put all the diced vegetables in a saucepan, add 4 cup hot water, salt and pepper. Cover and cook slowly, until very soft. About 20 minutes.

Take off the stove and rub vegetables through a strainer to make a thick puree. Dissolve the bouillon cubes in 1 cup boiling water, then stir into the vegetable puree and chill in the refrigerator. Just before serving, stir in cream and garnish with chopped celery.

CHILLED SPLIT PEA SOUP

One 12-oz. can vegetable split pea soup, 1 1/2 cups corn, 1/2 cup split peas, 1 stalk celery, finely chopped, 1 small carrot, finely chopped, 4 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 slice corn bread, crumbled.

Mix up vegetable soup, corn, celery, carrot, green pepper and salt. Bring to a boil. Simmer 10 minutes. Cool. Then place in the refrigerator to chill. Serve cold with corn bread on top. This makes 1 quart.

APPLE-CELERY SOUP

Three tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 stalks celery, chopped fine, 1 medium onion, chopped fine, 1 carrot, sliced, 5 apples, 2 bouillon cubes, 1 teaspoon sugar coloring, 1/2 teaspoon salt, few grains pepper, 1 teaspoon cinnamon.

Melt butter or margarine. Add celery, onion and carrot and cook slowly 5 minutes.

Grate apples and salt, leaving the skin on. Then add to the vegetables. Cover and cook briskly until everything is very soft, but do not allow vegetables to get brown.

Remove the bouillon cubes in a cup of water and add to the mixture along with the pepper and salt. Bring to a boil, then rub through a fine sieve. Fill the refrigerator. This makes a full quart and serves 4 generously.

CHICKEN-MADRILLE SOUP

One 12-oz. can madrilaine, 1 1/2 cups corn, 1/2 cup split peas, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, few grains summer savory, parsley or dill leaves.

Combine the soups, add salt and lemon juice and bring to a boil. Do not let the soup, however. Heat the soup, rather than combining it, helps to bring out the flavor.

Indian Woman

Receives Award

VANCOUVER, June 30.—(CP)—A Salish tribe Indian woman here has received a letter from Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, and the U.S. President's widow has called her as one of this continent's distinguished women.

The Indian woman is Mrs. Ruth Smith. She has been honored for her work as editor of The Native Voice, a monthly Indian paper, in 1947 and 1948.

The paper has a circulation of 3,000, is published here and sent as far away as the United Kingdom and India. Mrs. Smith has since retired as editor, and is working in a Vancouver Indian centre.
